Notes

1. Students majoring in European Studies have the choice of several different language streams. Students must complete a minimum of 18 units in the same language. The availability of language courses varies from year to year and students must consult the Undergraduate Office for suggested course sequencing.
2. Up to 6 units of the language requirements may be fulfilled by participation in an qualified academic exchange, international internship or work placement, approved international research project or international study tour related to the language of study. Contact the Undergraduate Programs Office for information on approved substitutes.
3. Language Studies majors are encouraged to use their free electives, particularly in Year Three, to acquire broader skills in functional areas of Business. See section on Minors. Alternatively, they should choose from approved electives in (V).
4. International Business Electives may be chosen from the following: ACCTG 442; B LAW 442, B LAW 444; BUEC 342, BUEC 442, BUEC 444; FIN 442; MARK 442; SEM 417, SEM 435. BUEC 342 is recommended as a first course in an International sequence.
5. ECON 323, HIST 210, MLCS 201, or POL S 260.
6. European electives should be chosen from courses in culture, history, political science, economics and geography (Earth and Atmospheric Sciences) relating to their area of interest. As available and appropriate courses will vary from year to year, students should consult the Undergraduate Office for approval of European electives.

Minors

1. Students with a declared major in European Studies may choose to do a minor in any subject area of Business. See Minors for Business Students . Minors are recommended but are not required.
  2. Students with a declared major in another area may not do a minor in European Studies.
